Under the proactive efforts of TDP MLAs, the government has successfully ushered in a new era of higher education by establishing several universities. Notable additions include Andhra University, Sri Venkateswara University, and Dr. B.R. Ambedkar University. This strategic expansion aims to make quality education more accessible to students across the state.

Beyond the creation of new institutions, the TDP has worked diligently to enhance the quality of education and facilities at existing colleges and universities. Initiatives such as constructing new buildings, providing modern equipment, and recruiting qualified faculty members signify a commitment to improving educational standards and making higher education accessible to students from diverse backgrounds. A standout achievement in the field of higher education is the introduction of the 'Chandranna Bima Scholarship scheme. Widely praised for its effectiveness, this initiative has played a pivotal role in promoting education and offering crucial support to disadvantaged students, ensuring that financial constraints do not hinder their pursuit of knowledge.

The establishment of the Andhra Pradesh State Council of Higher Education (APSCHE) stands as another significant TDP contribution. This council, entrusted with the responsibility of overseeing higher education development, has streamlined processes such as admissions, examinations, and degree awards, ensuring uniform standards across educational institutions. Acknowledging the pivotal role of research and innovation in advancing higher education, the TDP has actively supported the establishment of research institutes and funded various research projects. This forward-thinking approach underscores the party's commitment to fostering intellectual growth within the academic community. In recent years, the TDP has embraced technological advancements to improve the accessibility of education. The introduction of online learning platforms and mobile apps enables students to access educational resources remotely, showcasing the party's adaptability to evolving educational landscapes.

The TDP's contributions to the development of higher education in Andhra Pradesh have been transformative, with a focus on establishing institutions, improving existing infrastructure, and promoting research and innovation.
