

N. Chandrababu Naidu Receives Global Agriculture Policy Leadership Award

In 2018, N. Chandrababu Naidu, the dynamic leader of the Telugu Desam Party (TDP), was honoured with the prestigious "Global Agriculture Policy Leadership Award" by the Indian Council of Food and Agriculture (ICFA). This recognition underscored Chandrababu Naidu's exemplary contributions and leadership in shaping and implementing progressive agricultural policies for the betterment of the farming community. Under N. Chandrababu Naidu's leadership, the TDP party has consistently prioritised agricultural development as a key pillar of its governance agenda. The Telugu Desam Party has implemented innovative TDP policies aimed at increasing productivity, ensuring environmentally friendly farming practices, and improving the livelihoods of farmers in Andhra Pradesh.

One of the notable TDP achievements of the former TDP-led government was the successful implementation of the "Rythu Bandhu" scheme, a farmer-friendly initiative that provided direct financial support to farmers. This pioneering program aimed to alleviate the financial burdens on farmers by offering financial support for the purchase of inputs such as seeds, fertilisers, and pesticides. The TDP scheme not only boosted agricultural productivity but also empowered farmers to make informed decisions about their crops. In addition to the Rythu Bandhu scheme, the former TDP government, under Chandrababu Naidu's guidance, focused on the modernization of agriculture through the adoption of technology and best practices. Initiatives like the "Zero Budget Natural Farming" project aim to promote organic and sustainable farming methods, reduce dependence on chemical inputs, and ensure environmental sustainability.

The TDP has consistently advocated for the welfare of farmers, addressing their concerns and working towards creating a conducive environment for agricultural growth. International recognition of N. Chandrababu Naidu's vision for a flourishing and sustainable agriculture business is evident in the "Global Agriculture Policy Leadership Award" that the ICFA granted him in 2018. In the latest news, the TDP continues to be at the forefront of discussions on agricultural policies and rural development. The party remains committed to its mission of transforming Andhra Pradesh into an agrarian powerhouse while prioritising the welfare of its farming community. N. Chandrababu Naidu's visionary leadership and the TDP party's unwavering commitment to agricultural progress continue to shape the discourse on sustainable farming practices and rural empowerment.
