Whether you're planning to tie the knot with your partner or seeking clarity on the process, Advocate Kaushal is here to guide you every step of the way, ensuring a smooth and hassle-free experience.

What is Court Marriage?

Court marriage is a straightforward legal procedure performed under the Special Marriage Act, 1954. It allows two individuals to marry irrespective of their caste, religion, or nationality. The process is conducted by a marriage officer and provides a lawful certification of the union.

Steps Involved in Court Marriage in Punjab

Here is a step-by-step breakdown of the court marriage process in Punjab:

Filing the Notice of Intended Marriage:

The couple must file a notice of intended marriage at the Marriage Registrar's office in the district where one of them has resided for at least 30 days prior to the notice.

Publication of Notice:

The notice is displayed publicly at the registrar's office for 30 days to invite objections, if any.

Addressing Objections (if raised):

If objections are raised, they must be resolved within the stipulated period. Advocate Kaushal can provide expert assistance in handling such issues.

Execution of the Marriage:

After the 30-day period, if no objections are received, the couple can proceed with the marriage.

Three witnesses are required to be present during the marriage ceremony at the registrar's office.

Issuance of Marriage Certificate:

Upon completion of the formalities, the Marriage Registrar issues the official marriage certificate, legally validating the union.
